

PERFORMING ARTS

For Youth

THEATER CLASS

Rosebud CTC is collaborating with the Federal Way Community Center to bring theater arts to the youth in the community. Classes can cover musical theater and acting and singing for the stage.

Acting 103

Calling all youth actors who want to increase their skills on stage! In this class we will focus 1) HOW we say the lines in order to deliver 2) WHAT we want to say, while developing a strong character so we know 3) WHO we are on stage, and putting it all in context to create a full life for the character so we know 4) WHERE we are in time and space, in addition to these acting skills, we will also focus on technical skills such as 1) Voice projection—so we can speak fully without “yelling”, 2) Voice inflection and pitch variance—so we can have some variety in how we speak and make it interesting. This class is designed for the very beginner as well as the young actor who is beginning to build up a resume. We will have a free presentation on the final class day. Sign up for this exciting class today and learn from professional actors to learn how they do what they do and build your confidence to get out there and do it!

Age 9–15 yrs | $85 | 8 wk(s)

ID#241501-01 | 4/27–6/29 | Sa | 10–11am

Musical Theater 103

Attention youth actors who SING! This class is designed for those of you who love to be on the stage and belt your hearts out! And even if you have never been on stage but like the idea of singing and are thinking of trying it out, please join us! This class is for you! We will focus on the joy of singing as well as how to sing AND dance at the same time. Technical details like vocal projection, breath support, and vocal placement (and more) will be discussed. This class is designed for the very beginner as well as the youth actor who is building their resume. We will have a free presentation on the final class day. Sign up for this exciting musical theatre class today and learn from professional singers to learn how they do what they do and build your confidence to get out there and do it!
